Funeral Services Tuesday Afternoon For Sydney Dent

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Place chapel in Los Gatos for Sydney H. Dent, a resident of Sunnyside avenue here for the past 18 years.

Mr. Dent, who was a member of a prominent military family and the son of the late General Frederick T. Dent, veteran of the Civil, Mexican, and Indian wars, one-time secretary to General Grant, passed away late Monday at O'Connor's sanitarium after a long illness.

Sydney Dent practiced law until 1903, when he retired to a secluded life. He had never married.

Surviving is a brother, Colonel John C. Dent of San Francisco, and four nieces, all wives of military men. They are Mrs. Lucile Burt, wife of Major Franklin T. Burt of San Francisco; Mrs. Edith Kern, wife of Major Kenneth E. Kern of San Francisco; Mrs. Helen Ginepling, wife of Major Thomas N. Ginepling of Lansing, Mich.; and Mrs. Julia Nixon, wife of Colonel Courtland Nixon of Washington, D. C.

Farm Bureau Endorses Move, Mortgage Relief

Farmers of the state are demanding relief from the foreclosure situation, and, unless this comes from congress, will make a demand on the legislature for such legislation. This is the statement just issued by the California Farm Bureau federation which declares that farm groups in the Imperial valley, the San Joaquin and the Sacramento to protest that pending foreclosures have brought a near crisis to large numbers of agriculturists.

"We feel that a great responsibility is being entrusted with our lawmakers," said Alex Johnson, executive secretary of the California Farm Bureau federation. "Although no acts of violence have occurred in California, we have seen what has happened elsewhere in the country. The very desperation of the situation is leading farmers to equally desperate measures. We don't want this sort of thing to happen here."

Johnson pointed out that the farm mortgage debt in the United States is now nearly three times the pre-war level.

He declared that one-tenth of all the farmers in the United States have lost their farms during the past five years. He estimates the total farm debt at twelve and one-half billion dollars which measured in terms of commodity prices with which this debt must be paid total nearly 30 billion dollars. To meet this situation, the farmers have developed an emergency program embodied in two bills now pending in congress—senate bill 5,515 and house bill 14,359.

Johnson declared that this mortgage relief program cannot wait until a special session and that his organization is prepared in the event congress fails to act at this session to present a measure to the

24 Old Settlers Form Organization

Mrs. Phebe Payne, who came to Santa Clara valley in 1849 when a five-months-old infant, received the title of "Santa Clara County's Oldest Settler," when the county Old Settlers' association drew up a charter and held its first meeting after Campbell's Old Settlers' day last Wednesday.

Under the direction of John Henry Campbell, Campbell's oldest settler, who was born here in 1852, son of Benjamin Campbell, 24 residents of the county for 45 years or more, signed the charter.

Newton Finley, 92, who also came to Campbell in 1852, although unable to be present, signed the charter when it was brought to his home.

The charter members of the association and the year in which they came to the valley are as follows:

Mrs. Phebe Payne, 1849; John Henry Campbell, 1852; Newton Finley, 1852; Mrs. C. T. Colombet, 1854; Louis F. Oldham, 1856; Frances L. Smith, 1858; William H. Lawrence, 1860; George L. Smith, 1861; Jessie A. Campbell, 1862; Charlotte W. Sutter, 1864; G. I. Rawlings, 1864; Flora B. Hutton, 1867; Dora E. Ross, 1868; Mrs. W. C. Anderson, 1868; A. M. Crittenden, 1869; Hiram C. Hutton, 1870; Joseph Bohnett, 1871; Marshall Ross, 1875; F. E. Caton, 1876; Mrs. Emma I. Johnson, 1881; George W. Ellis, 1884; W. C. Anderson, 1884; Mrs. W. C. Wiester, 1885; J. A. Bailey, 1885.

Y. M. I. QUINTET FALLS BEFORE QUERY ATTACK

Monday evening at the local gym Campbell's Query club basketball team took the Y. M. I.'s 24 to 12 in what was, from the spectators' viewpoint, an interesting game.

Unable to miss the basket in the first half, Campbell stacked up 20 points, Murty accounting for six field goals. The opposition chalked up 6. In the last half the hoop was not so easy to hit.

The box score:

Campbell	fg	ft	Y.M.I.	fg	ft
Eddleman	2	0	Bonni	0	0
Murty	6	0	Urzi	0	0
Nunes	0	0	Welsh	0	1

Next Monday evening the local aggregation has a double-header planned with Kimball's store of Los Gatos, and another Los Gatos team which will probably contain hot shots of the Feline alumni.

Knappen Escapes Wreck Wednesday With Minor Injuries

R. H. Knappen, Press editor, sustained minor injuries when his car overturned on Rincon avenue at the curve near the old Crawford place. He was extricating himself from the wreck with considerable difficulty when a Saratogan by the name of Weyland, and Furtado, a local rancher, aided him, the former bringing him to Campbell, where he was treated by Dr. F. R. Anderson.

The automobile was badly damaged.

Curtain Rolls Up Friday Night, High School Play

"Sky Train," the Campbell Union High School senior class play, is now in its last week of rehearsal and will be ready for production Friday evening, March 3rd. The cast has worked hard under the direction of Miss Jean McKinley and they promise a finished production.

The play is a mystery drama and contains everything to make a delectable entertainment dish: thrills, romance, comedy, pathos, and tragedy.

Leonora Johnson as the lady of mystery is excellent. Her poise acting ability, and beautiful voice suggest the professional rather than the amateur.

Character acting is a true sign of talent. The characterizations done by Billy Rambo as Jason Penypacker, Gladys Nelson as Mrs. Ashley, and Dick Pyle as Gerson Slade are very consistent. Billy Rambo brings many a laugh as the chubby little banker; and the tender romantic moments between the banker and the romantic Mrs. Ashley are very humorous. Dick Pyle does a truly fine piece of work as the spiritualist, and the spiritualistic seance is worth the admission price.

Richard Morton as Lieutenant Henley, the big blue-eyed boy the ladies can't seem to resist, is at his best.

Bernice, the fickle ingenue lead, is played by Frances Reed, who takes command of her part in an indeed charming manner.

Wolff, the Texas gentleman, is well-played by Philip Farley; Rawson, the radio operator, who is the victim of certain mysterious killers, is ably portrayed by Robert Pomeroy; and Nita, the French maid, played by Margaret Smith, is "verrie excite" throughout the whole play.

The entire action takes place in the cabin of a giant dirigible above the Atlantic ocean. The Captain is played by Joseph Rusigno; first mate, Philip Sanfilippo; and second mate, Stanley Silva. This crew makes an excellent background for the mystery and political intrigue which takes place in the play.

Others in the cast are Lois Bachman, Eine Berry, Mary Cuzic, Bernice Murty, Sylvia Best, Frances Johnston, Lula Marie Caldwell, Thelma Brooks, Alice Grant, David Hollinsead, Bill Halley, Tony Mendosa and Charles Fammatre.

Who murders Rawson and the others? How is it done?

See the "Sky Train." Grammar school auditorium, Friday evening, March 3rd, at 8:00 p. m.

Tickets may be obtained from any senior, or at the door.

Interviews With Tax Assessor Are Available Saturdays

Starting next Monday, Mr. G. E. Farley, local deputy assessor, will be in the field, making his annual rounds.

Saturday afternoons Mr. Farley will be in his office to check up on assessments and issue exemptions. Heretofore many people have gone to San Jose to seek this service, unaware that it is obtainable in Campbell.

Geo. Washington Honored by Grange

George Washington and the colonial ancestors were honored with music and drama at the regular meeting of the Orchard City grange Tuesday night, during the lecturer's hour, in charge of Mrs. Jessie McChesney.

"Washington's First Defeat," a one-act comedy, was presented by three of the grange members. Miss Harriet Barnes, who played Miss Lucy Grymes, Lowland Beauty and Washington's first love, proved herself a trooper with real ability, portraying merriment, anger, and coquetry equally well. Miss Annie L. Adams, who directed the play, and acted the part of Camellia, humorous dandy servant, showed a mastery of the negro dialect. Fred Hubback, who was George Washington himself in a sixteen-year-old edition, played a difficult part well as he proposed in awkward boy fashion to Miss Lucy.

Mrs. Herbert M. Shadle gave much pleasure to the Grange members when she sang, "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," and "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Her dainty colonial costume harmonized with the songs and with the spirit of the evening.

During the regular business meeting, presided over by Lawrence Hendricks, worthy master, reports of the legislative, taxation, garden, and cooperation committee were heard.

Voting on a resolution proposed by Leroy Anderson, member of the legislative committee, the grange went on record as being opposed to the proposed state legislature bill which will consolidate all elementary schools in each high school district.

School Elections Are Set for March 31; Incumbents In Field

On Friday, March 31, trustees for Campbell high and grammar school districts will be elected, two for each board, according to official notice in another column of the Press.

F. W. Mitchell, clerk of the high school board, and Mrs. Jessie B. Shelley, recent appointee to the post created by the resignation of E. H. Todd of the same directorate, are expected to run again. J. E. Weisendanger, Carl B. Field, and O. B. Couk are other members of the board. Rumor has it that dark horses may later enter the race.

Seats on the grammar school board will be sought by Lloyd Gardner, clerk, and W. R. Porter, who together with J. B. Collins, S. N. Hedegard, and W. C. Bohnett, now complete the board.

J. C. Soutar has been appointed inspector of the grammar school election, with Mrs. Frank Lopes and Mrs. Edith Van Every, judges. G. E. Farley is inspector for the high school election, with Edith Barker and M. L. Morgan, judges. Elections will be held in the kindergarten room at the grammar school.

Query Nine Beats Minshalls In 11 Inning Game

The Campbell Query club baseball nine Sunday defeated the Minshalls players before a fair crowd at the local diamond. Two extra innings were required to settle the 7-7 tie which confronted the boys at the end of the ninth, the eleventh finding Campbell one up on their opponents.

A close score was maintained throughout the game; 4-4 at the end of the seventh. In the eighth, Minshalls came through with 3—a walk, single, and a homer by Pinkston. In the ninth, Campbell came back with 3—singles by P. Frank and V. Murty, and a home run by Gray. The deciding run was made by A. Frank on a single.

Current Comment

"Silver should have been remonetized before the panic," said a western mining journal recently. "(Then there would have been no panic.) ... To delay action now is nothing short of criminal."

This may be a little far fetched, but there is a certain element of truth in it. Depressed silver prices are a great factor in prolonging general depression—a fact realized by thousands of our foremost economists and business men. Cheap silver has almost destroyed foreign trade and thrown the monetary systems of the world into confusion. There should be immediate official action to find ways and means of bringing silver back.

A great deal is heard concerning countries which have gone off the gold standard and then, with the price advantage thus obtained, have flooded the American market with their products. Still higher tariff barriers have been demanded by many to prevent this sort of competition.

The only trouble with that theory that non-gold standard countries haven't been flooding our market. In 1932 our imports were valued at 37 per cent less than in 1931—while the average price decline during the year was only 11 per cent. The two principal countries which are off the gold standard—Japan and the United Kingdom—sold us goods valued at 35 and 45 per cent less, respectively.

If the super-protectionists had their way, complete economic isolation for the United States would be the inevitable result—and it's pretty well demonstrated that any country trying to live remote and alone in the modern world, is doomed to perpetual distress. It is one thing to protect American industries and workers from dangerous competition—another to protect them from competition which does not exist. A sizeable flow of commerce between the great powers would be the most potent of all elements in obtaining and maintaining world stability.

Of late, farm prices have been on the downgrade, but losses have been small. Cattle was one of the exceptions, showing a rise. Cotton, grain, hay, hogs and sheep took losses.

The price of grain futures rose temporarily with extremely bad weather. Caution was evident, however, and there has been little pronounced change. The visible supply of wheat is decreasing steadily, a good sign for future price and market improvement.

Business conditions in the Philippines show no improvement, with credits and collections difficult. Industrial activity is at a high level in Japan. Little change in England. Italy showed a heavy unfavorable trade balance in 1932. Conditions in Austrian industries are unfavorable. In Finland, the low exchange value of the mark during 1932 enabled export industries to increase sales abroad, and marked gains were shown in textile, foodstuffs, metal and other industries, according to the Industrial News Review.

The friends of peace are the best friends of tax reduction as well.

The cost of war, past and present and future, is the major item in the operating cost of every great power. In this country, 72 per cent of all federal funds go for war debts, war veterans and the army and navy.

Organized destruction hits every pocketbook.

DAVID STROM INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Crashing into a telephone pole when his car was forced off the Almaden road near Malone road at 11 p. m. Monday, David Strom, 935 Franquette avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oluf Strom of Campbell, received serious injuries and is now confined to his bed.

Strom, who suffered a possible fractured skull, severely lacerated chin and lip, broken teeth and a punctured ear drum, is expected to recover. He is said to have lain unconscious by the road for two hours after the accident and then to have staggered to his home a quarter of a mile distant. Strom is a teller at the San Jose American Trust company.

W. C. T. U. To Hold Meeting Here Next Tuesday Evening

Campbell's Methodist and Congregational churches will be hosts to delegates of the California Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention at a meeting to be held in the Methodist church Tuesday night, March 7, at 7:30 o'clock.

The state W. C. T. U. convention is being held that day in San Jose, and the delegates will journey to Campbell for an evening's discussion. Miss Louise Taft will address the audience here. Everyone interested is welcome to attend.

University of California students presided at the evening service of the Congregational church last Sunday night, giving a most worthwhile and entertaining program. Harland Fredrick and Donald Clark spoke at the services. Miss Gertrude Asman and Karl Lawson addressed the Christian Endeavor at a joint meeting of the high school and college groups. The Berkeley students provided the evening's music.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in Santa Clara for Manuel S. Santos, 79, of Campbell, who died Wednesday night. He was the father of Manuel J. Santos, Campbell, Mrs. M. J. Santos and A. H. Santos, one of the owners of the Santa Clara Undertaking company.

Ira Abbott, district superintendent of Campbell Union grammar school, presided over a meeting of the Santa Clara County Elementary School Principals' association held in the San Jose Y. W. C. A. Tuesday night.

BELLARMINE TO MIX WITH LOCAL TEAMS SATURDAY

Basketball fans may, Saturday night, March 4, witness some fast going between the light and heavy-weight teams of the Campbell high school and Bellarmine prep of San Jose.

The visitors have a record similar to that of Campbell's teams, their heavies having been defeated twice, and the 130's but once. This is a post season game, and has no bearing on the league standing of Campbell. It is reported, however, that Bellarmine is out for Campbell's blood, and considerable excitement should ensue.

A small admission charge will be made. High school gym is the scene of battle.

"... let's buy one of the new AUTOMATIC WATER HEATERS

Mr. Boss"....

"A grand idea," replies Mr. Boss, "the old heater is too slow. Funny we put up with it so long."

"Just the thing too," adds Mrs. Boss, "to get the dishes and the washing done quicker."

"We'll call it our Spring Investment," adds Mr. Boss with finality.

HAS your present water heater slowed down with old age and become wasteful? Does more heat from your water heater and tank go toward heating the kitchen and basement than goes toward heating water? Perhaps a new Automatic Water Heater would actually save you money.

An Automatic heats water cheaper per gallon than any other method of heating water in the home. Just as new gas ranges with insulated ovens and automatic heat control are better built, are cheaper to operate, do the job they were made for better, so too, is the new Automatic Water Heater better in all respects. Investigate the new Automatic Water Heaters carefully. Consider their construction. The outer casing is a steel shell, enamelled in kitchen colors, and smooth as porcelain. Then comes a thick blanket of insulating wool completely covering the water storage tank within. At the base of the storage tank is the automatically controlled gas burner. It starts itself. It stops itself. The insulated tank keeps the hot water stored ready for instant service at the turn of a faucet.

The Automatic costs 50% less than water heaters rendering similar service only a few years ago. Right now, too, you can purchase an Automatic for as little as $4.85 down and as little as $3.85 a month. This is for complete installation. Investigate this low-cost, hot water service for your home today.

SERVICE and DEPENDABILITY

THE FARMERS CORNER

By Ralph H. Taylor

Scores of farm bills, designed to remedy or alleviate "depression ills" of California's farming industry, together with a flood of "repeal acts," aimed at the elimination of state support of present agricultural services of questioned necessity, are slated for preliminary committee hearings in the near future.

With the legislature well launched on the second half of its biennial session, both the senate and assembly committees on agriculture, as well as the important livestock and dairies committee of the lower house, are clearing the decks for careful study of the large crop of farm measures.

An outgrowth of the legislative drive for rigid economy in state expenditures, brought about by depleted revenues and a bankrupt general fund, the repeal acts will require the most careful scrutiny to insure sound economy, through the elimination of non-essentials, without crippling services of prime importance to agriculture.

California farmers, recognizing the dilemma of the state government and anxious to avert the imposition of new taxes, must approach the problem unselfishly. Unnecessary services must go and clumsy duplication of services must be eliminated. On the other hand, the agricultural committees of the two houses must guard against foolish economies which might cost the farming industry and the state as a whole many millions of dollars through the breakdown of essential quarantine, standardization and inspection services.

Some of the repeal acts which will soon come up before committees for study and analysis include measures to repeal warehouse, apiary, cotton, and deciduous fruit dealer inspection service, and seed standardization inspection.

Another bill eliminates state support for the state fair, requiring that it be discontinued or made self-supporting.

Still another act would repeal the department of agriculture's field crop inspection service.

In each instance, the fate of these services should rest on the question: "Is the service essential?"

In the scope of general farm legislation, much of which is an attempt to meet problems either caused or intensified by the world-wide economic upheaval, the following measures are of great interest:

S. B. 57, by Senator Ralph Swing, San Bernardino—Permits the slaughter and sale of meat by the farmer for local consumption without inspection.

S. B. 81, by Senator Frank W. Mixer, Exeter—Requires brokers and commission merchants to pay a $50 fee instead of $25, but eliminates the present bond requirement. Agents would pay $10.

S. B. 101, by Senator Nelson T. Edwards, Orange—Specifies standards for citrus products must obtain at time of picking, not later. Not more than 15 per cent of a lot could be damaged by freezing.

S. B. 111, by Senator Charles Deuel, Chico—Defines olive trade terms and provides the count per pound must be carried on all olive labels, with not more than 5 per cent average variation.

S. B. 119, by Senator James M. Allen, Yreka—A humane measure against keeping cattle more than 23 consecutive hours in a truck or trailer; thereafter five consecutive hours of feed and rest must be provided. Railroads are already regulated by a similar measure.

S. B. 126, by Senator Harold J. Powers, Eagleville—Permits establishment of grazing rights on pub-

WALTER BACHRODT TELLS KIWANIS ABOUT NEW LAWS

At yesterday's meeting and luncheon of the Campbell Kiwanis club G. E. Farley was chairman and Walter Bachrodt, superintendent of San Jose city schools, was the speaker of the day. He spoke on tax legislation as it is being handled at the present session of the California state legislature.

T. A. Cutting was appointed sergeant-at-arms, and E. R. Kennedy, treasurer, at the meeting. Dr. Weyland Morgan was elected to membership, also.

Next week, "Dud" De Groot, San Jose State coach, will be the speaker, and Campbell's two champion basketball teams will be guests of honor at the luncheon.

The Rev. Joseph H. Bennett, who is one of the five persons on the state educational committee for the Congregational church, will spend next Monday in San Francisco and Berkeley on committee business.

Mrs. Allen Rudolph of Moorpark avenue, who was to sing on the afternoon's program of the Old Settlers' Day celebration, was unable to be present because of a serious fracture her daughter, Joyce, sustained that morning. Mrs. Rudolph was with her daughter at the hospital for over three hours while the fracture was being set. Joyce is reported to be getting along very nicely.

Group 3 of the Guild will hold a food sale Saturday, March 4, at Field's Store. A variety of appetizing cooked foods will be offered the public.

Miss Dora Finnemore, who has been quite ill with scarlet fever, is recovering rapidly; her friends will soon welcome her back into society.

Mrs. J. C. Ainsley was a visitor in San Francisco Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Anderson and Mrs. Barthold Guttormson accompanied Carl Johnson to San Francisco Monday.

Miss Wilma Smith is visiting in San Francisco this week.

lic lands by continuous use for five years. Trespass by other cattleman would be punishable by six months in jail or a $500 fine.

California Gardens To Be Discussed At Club Meeting

Mrs. Elizabeth Burke of Mountain View, who is the chairman of gardens of the Santa Clara County Federation of Women's clubs, will give a talk on seasonal planting. It is hoped there will be a good attendance. There will be a plant exchange during the afternoon: any members having plants or small shrubs, bulbs or packets of seed are requested to bring them in for exchanging.

The committee in charge for the afternoon includes Mrs. Warren Shelley, Mrs. L. C. Shank, Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. A. B. Townsend, Mrs. L. T. Lennox, and Mrs. J. C. Ainsley.

Mrs. Leonard Shadle was honored at a recent bridge tea given by Mrs. Albert E. Herschbach. Guests were Miss Ruth Chaffee, and Mesdames Leonard Shadle, Eugene Moore, Lloyd Cooke, Bill Shadle, Warren Barry, Herbert Volden, Bob Sherriffs, William Cooper, Henri Lecat, and Homer Fletcher.

Local Boy Scouts are going on an all-day hike Saturday to the Almaden Mines country. The trip is in charge of the Rev. J. H. Bennett, who plans to give tests to the second class scouts.

"What Do We Mean by the Power of the Cross?" will be the topic of the Rev. Joseph H. Bennett, pastor of the Congregational church, at his morning sermon next Sunday.

The Ada Rebekah lodge will receive an official visit from Mrs. Irene Carter, Cupertino, district deputy president of the Rebekahs, at the regular lodge meeting night, March 7. In charge of the evening are Mrs. Al Bulmore, Mrs. L. E. Eddlemon, Mrs. Florence Grizzle, Horace Lea and Matthew Burns.

The Rev. Joseph H. Bennett will begin next Wednesday his regular series of weekly meetings for would-be members of the church.

Common Property Should Benefit By Cut, Says Stewart

Santa Barbara, March 1—Citing the impressive total of $33,000,000 as the aggregate savings in school costs voluntarily effected by boards of education and school authorities over the state during the last two years, Paul E. Stewart, vice-president of the California Teachers' association and superintendent of schools at Santa Barbara, today in a statement given out here declared that additional reductions in school costs "should be effected in such a way as to further reduce the tax on common properties now so disproportionately burdened."

The figures quoted by Superintendent Stewart refer specifically to economies effected by school authorities. Other estimates have given figures for school budget reductions in general over the state as high as $48,500,000.

Stewart's statement was issued on the eve of the beginning of the second half of the legislative session at Sacramento and further declared that such reductions as are contemplated should "result from the scientific consideration and understanding of the whole educational problem and not from mere political chopping."

The statement, in part, is as follows:

"Boards of education and school authorities have in the past two years effected reductions in school costs aggregating, for the state as a whole, approximately $33,000,000. These economies have resulted in the reduction of school tax rates on all common property of the several school districts of California. Further reductions in school costs should be effected in such a way as to further reduce the tax on common properties now so disproportionately burdened."

"Educational leaders in California recognize the seriousness of the present economic conditions and the distress under which our fellow citizens labor today. Their hearty cooperation and support is being given en in assisting the people to adjust the cost of public education to necessary reductions of revenue. However, we would not be meeting our full obligations and responsibilities as public servants if we did not make every reasonable effort to see that two fundamental conditions prevail in the accomplishment of these necessary reductions.

"First: all economies should be made in such direction as to effect the least reduction in the essential opportunities of childhood and youth. That is to say they should result from the scientific consideration and understanding of the whole educational problem and not mere political chopping.

"Second: all considerations should be directed by the desire to accomplish the reduction of the tax burden on those citizens and groups most heavily burdened, namely the owners of common property in the form of homes, farms, offices, industrial plants, stores and so forth, as contrasted with the operative property of the corporations.

"In the present legislative controversy over reduction in public education there is great danger of the main issue being obscured in the public mind. The real questions

HORSE RACE BILL URGED IN CALIF.

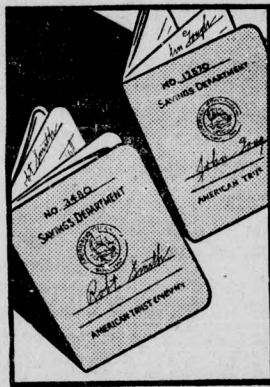

San Francisco, March 1—Legislators, now in session at Sacramento, state they have been deluged with requests from constituents in various parts of the state to pass the horse racing bill now before them, because of its immediate revenue-producing provisions, says a news bulletin issued by the sponsors of the bill.

The Woolwine-Maloney bill has been chosen by the committee on morals as the one of the three submitted that will be placed before the legislative body.

Providing that a substantial portion of the tracks' daily income shall enter the general fund of California to aid animal husbandry and help finance county fairs, the bill's backers predict that approximately $750,000 in revenue will be obtained for the state.

Amendment No. 5, the racing measure voted on by the California electorate on November 8 last, was defeated by only three per cent of

Quilt Exhibit At Cambrian School

An exhibition of rare old quilts was given by the Cambrian school today between 2 and 5 o'clock.

Colonial quilts made by New England ancestors of the exhibitors, hand-woven coverlets from Virginia, and various intricate-patterned quilts were displayed. The Camp Fire girls of the school, under the leadership of Mrs. Louis Shelley, sold home-made candy and punch.

the total vote cast throughout California.

The revival of the breeding industry in California is assured with the passage of the bill, agriculturists declare. Bryan Field, writing in the New York Times, points out that the breeding industry, which in three states—Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky—involves a valuation of $51,582,500 in farms and horseflesh, has grown to such an extent that the United States is now the largest producer of thoroughbreds in the world.

California, breeders point out, once ranked with Kentucky as the greatest horse breeding state in the Union.
